Lowly Shepherds with Flocks on Nearby Hills First to Note Miracle of Celestial Visitation

Long-Awaited Messiah Born in Lowly Manger

The Christmas issue today tells the story of Christ's birth as it might have been told if modern newspapers had been printed at that time. Today's current news appears on inside pages. The Bethlehem story was mainly written several years ago by a newsman and its use has become tradition with us. The dispatches are based on the story of the Christ child as it was originally written.

Eyes of All Judea Turn to Bethlehem As Word Spreads

Appearance of Star Convinces Inhabitants New Baby is Prince

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1. — The eyes of all Judea are turned with awe today upon this little town as the word emanates from it that the long prophesied Messiah was born here last night.

Miraculous happenings and visitations of heavenly hosts which confronted them with radiance and divine song, lead inhabitants to believe that this is the prince of the throne of David, who Scriptures have said will reunite the scattered tribes of Israel and reign over them as the Son of God.

The appearance of a new star of Great Magnitude and luminenscence, convinced them that it portends to the ancient prophecy.

The infant, born to Mary, a Jewish girl from Nazareth, who is the wife of Joseph, a carpenter, was first discovered by a group of shepherds who received the news of His birth from a band of angels while they were tending their flocks in the low lying hills outside the city.

Descending in a blaze of heavenly glory that prostrated the little group of men and boys with amazement, the divine visitors told them not to be afraid but to go to the stable in Bethlehem, where they would find the Christ in swaddling clothes and lying in a manger.

This the shepherds did, being guided all the way by an angel. There they found the child, but recently born, with his parents and stable animals. So deep was the conviction of the angel's message upon them, that they immediately accepted Him as the promised Saviour, and fell upon their knees and worshiped him.

Following in quick succession the visit of the shepherds was a caravan of wise men, or Magi, from humble birthplace bearing jewels and precious gifts. To them too, this was a long-awaited event, since they are close students of astronomy, and were watching for the star. When it appeared they regarded it as the sign that the child had been born which the prophet had foretold.

While the largest part of the population here is talking of the event in tones of unsuppressed awe, and plainly regard it as a means by which they will be delivered from their Roman oppressor, there are many who are frankly skeptical. They feel that the future Christ will come from a more significant source.

The whole atmosphere here has been one of unusual excitement for the past few days since that was the time decreed by Augustus Caesar for all tax payers in Judea to be registered. Mary and Joseph being of the house of David, were required to come to Bethlehem, and although Mary was an expectant mother, and the 50-mile journey from Nazareth in Galilee was extremely arduous for her, the urgency of the order was such that they dare not say no.

From the meager details gained from keepers of public places, it appears that Joseph had failed to make any reservation for lodging. The low temperature of the winter night forced them to the stable where they made themselves as comfortable as they could in the straw. They suffered no ill effects from the experience, however, and those who visited the little family after the birth became known, report that an aura of light transformed the dingy surroundings into a place of beauty.

Mary indicated that she would call the child Jesus.

PROPHETS OF OLD

First to See Coming Of Prince of Peace

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1. — For centuries prophets have forecast the birth of a Christ Child and historians have made many references to the coming of a Messiah.

These are some of the names which have been applied to Him. Immanuel, Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace, The Lord of the Highest and Jesus.

Since the birth here today of the Wonderful child and the excitment and rejoicing that have followed local scribes have been searching history and the Bible and point to the predictions of Isaiah, Jeremiah, Micha and others.

The following quotations are given as vital to the Messiah's coming:

The Lord spoke again to Ahaz saying, Ask thee a sign of the Lord they God . . . But Ahaz said I will not ask, neither will I tempt the Lord. And he said, Hear ye now, O House of David . . . Behold a virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel. — Isaiah 7:14.

The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light; they that dwell in the land of the shawdow of death, upon them hath the light shined . . . For unto us a child is born, unto us a child is given, and the government shall be upon his shoulders, and his name shall be called WONDEFUL COUNSELOR THE MIGHTY GOD, THE EVERLASTING FATHER, THE PRINCE OF PEACE, of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgement and justice henceforth even forever.

The zeal of the Lord of hosts will perform this. — Isaiah 9:2-7.

I will gather the remnants of my flock out of all countries whither I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds . . . and I will set up shepherds over them which shall feed them, and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall they be lacking, saith the Lord, that I will raise, and the king shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgement and justice in the earth . . . And this is his name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD, Our RIGHTEOUSNESS. — Jeremiah 23:3-6.

Now gather thyself in troops, O daughter of troops; he hath laid seige against us; They say smite the judge of Israel with a rod upon the cheek. But thou, Bethlehem. Ephararath, though thou be little among the thousands of Judahs, yet out of thee shall come forth unto me one that is to be ruler of Israel; whose goings forth have been from old, from everlasting . . And he shall stand, and feed in the strength of the Lord, in the majesty of the name of the Lord his God; and they shall abide; for now shall he be great unto the ends of the earth. — Micah 5:14.

In the sixth month the Angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, to a virgin spoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David and the virgin's name was Mary. And the angel came upon her, and said. Hail thou are highly favored, the Lord is with thee: blessed are thou among women. And when she saw him she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be, and the Angel said unto her: Fear not, Mary, for thou hast found favor with God.

Messiah Comes Into World Torn By Internal Strife

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1. — Chris was born last night. They say he is a King. Into a world torn with strife, into a dictator-ridden country that trembles at the clashing swords of Rome, has come the ray of light so long awaited by the troubled people.

It is a far cry from the golden pillars of Solomon's temple to the crude stalls of a cattle barn.

For hundreds of years the memories and tales of the glories of ancient Jerusalem have been treasured in the hearts of scattered race. For generations they have unrolled their papyrus scripts and reassured themselves that one day a Redeemer of Mankind would restore their kingdoms. With mighty armies He would vanquish a tyrant Caesar, and rebuild their shining city.

They thought of him in terms of shining rainment and a golden throne; they didn't expect swaddling clothes and manger hay.

They could see him proclaimed by heralds with silver trumpets; they didn't think his companions could be rough-haired oxen and sleepy-eyed goats.

They expected urns of smoldering incense, but not the aroma of a stable.

Multitudes would prostrate themselves on the ground in His presence, they believed; they didn't suppose that a harried innkeeper would suggest that the royal family sleep in the barn because all of his rooms were full of taxpayers.

Some say that this baby born last night to Mary and Joseph of Nazareth couldn't possibly be the Messiah foretold in Scriptures. But there are others who remember the words of the prophet Isaiah, of Jeremiah and of Micah and with unspeakable joy hail Him as the Saviour of Israel.

Magi Followed Star To Find Son of Mary

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1. — The mysticism and beauty of the Orient has mingled with the simplicity and reverence of a little town made holy by a divine occurance.

Three sages from the East, impressive in the richness of their many colored silks and gold insignia, walked the dusty streets of Bethlehem today and told of their journeys across desert and plain to lay rare gifts at the feet of the tiny babe.

They spoke briefly and eloquently of the prophecy. "There shall come a star out of Jacob and a spectre shall rise out of Israel," and they described the brilliance and comet-like action of this star which had arisen in the east, and which they had followed until it halted over the Judean city.

These three Magi who bear the names of Casper, Melchor and Balthazar, were familiar with the Hebrew prophecies which foretold the advent of the Messiah, and had long waited for the star, they said. To prepare for the promised King of Israel, they sold their possessions and equipped a caravan.

Last night, surrounded by humble shepherds and barnyard animals, they fell to their knees and worshipped the young child with great joy, and presented him with frankincense, myrrh and gold.

When they were asked if the commonplace surrounding seemed out of keeping with Christ's significance, Melchor, the wise man, answered:

"The King we seek is not to be found in the palace, nor among the rich and powerful. If the light of the world and the glory of Israel had been appointed to come with earthly splendor, it must have happened long ago. For no son of Abraham will ever again rival the power which Joseph had in the palaces of Egypt or the magnificance of Solomon throned between the lions of Jerusalem. But the light for which the world is waiting is a new light, the glory that shall rise out of patient and triumphant suffering. And the kingdom which is to be established forever in a new kingdom, the royalty of unconquerable love."

An intimation of the uncertain future was voiced when he added: "I do not know how the turbulent kings and people of the earth shall be brought to acknowledge the Messiah and pay homage to Him. But this I know. Those who seek Him will do well to look among the poor and lowly, the sorrowful and the oppressed."

Astrologers See Tragedy, Sorrow For Holy Babe

JERUSALEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1. — Great tragedy will mark the future of the child born in Bethlehem, say the country's foremost astrologers. The stars, they say, reveal:

He will be in great danger while he is still an infant, and because of an attempt upon His life, many children will be killed.

He will live to be hailed in Jerusalem, but will later be rejected and betrayed by one close to Him.

Crucifixion will be the manner of His death, and He will undergo unspeakable suffering.

There are other venerable pathetic words which foretell the sufferings of the promised Messiah.

These reveal that He will be "despised and rejected of men, a man of sorrows and acquainted grief."

Their search of the records it is believed, will continue for many weeks and will entail many secret conferences with not only members of their craft, but with the priesthood in the temple itself. Whether their finds will be made public in detail is not known.

The astrologers added that this preliminary report of their findings as revealed by their efforts probably would be considered altered by further study and indeed, might be radically altered by results of research and study.

Dogs and Sheep Overcome by Celestial Radiance

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1. — The shepherd's dogs and sheep were overcome also by the strange light from heaven last night, the men reported.

'Mary Smiled at Me!' Simply Clad Boy Says

NAZARETH, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1. — A young boy — one of the band of shepherds which was visited on the hill near here last night by a heavenly host of angels who told them of the birth of the baby prophet, was a shy narrator of events transpiring at the stables when the presence of the child became known.

Rough clad, and plainly awed by his part in the divine drama, he gave the only clear impression gained of Mary, the mother of the Holy Child. The other shepherds were too inspired, and the wise men from the east too preoccupied with the identity of the infant to notice details which the eye of a child seized upon.

"Everything seems so quiet in the stable," he replied to questions. "I noticed that even the pigeons didn't coo like they usually do."

"Did Mary or Joseph say anything to anyone?" he was asked.

The lad flushed then conflicted: "Joseph asked to me help him fix the hay so it would be more comfortable, and then Mary smiled at me after she had been looking at the baby, and so I asked her if they didn't have better places in the inn. She answered low-like: "There wasn't any room for us."

"I felt sorry for her; and then she smiled again and just whispered: "But I like it here. The inn was so noisy, and the streets are full of loud people. The animals are peaceful. You must'nt feel sorry for us."

"I still felt strange. It is as though something too wonderful to talk about has happened to me, I can't explain it. But I feel so peaceful inside."

Inn Keeper's Faith In Miracle Strengthens

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning of Year of Our Lord 1. — Bewilderment marked the features today of the keeper of the little inn where Mary and Joseph sought shelter last night. But behind the bewilderment could be sensed a dawning belief.

"There was something different about her face," he said of Mary. "It was tired — but different. And when Joseph turned away leading the ass she was riding, something about him too, made me want to call them back.

"I went to the stable this morning," he mused. "Only it didn't seem like the same stable somehow."

Mary and Joseph Both Descendants Of Royal Line

NAZARETH, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1. — Although Mary, mother of the Saviour, and her husband, Joseph, live among the humbler folk here, where he is a carpenter, they are of the royal family of Judiah and the descendant of King David.

The Jews keep exact lists of their genealogies thus explaining the present situation.

For the old prophets said that the Christ child was to be born at Bethlehem whereas Mary lives in Nazareth 50 miles distant. But when the Emperior August called for the regular 10-year census he ordered Herod to register the people according to the tribe to which they belong. Mary and Joseph belonging to the family of David were required to go to Bethlehem.

Shopkeeper Has Doubts About Jesus

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1. — "All the excitement has made more business for my shop but I do not believe he is the Christ."

That was the opinion of the proprietor of a small shop here who has not yet visited the now-famous birthplace of the infant-Jesus.

"I really believe this is just something arranged to make more entertainment for taxpayer week," he went on. "Why, the true Christ will be so mighty that there will not be a doubt by anyone when he comes. That light was just a falling meteor and those sleepy shepherds were startled by it. You know how a story can grow."

He said he had been too busy to go along with the crowds to the stable, and added that the innkeeper would probably have more business than ever.

"I have an extra room here at the back," he said thoughtful. "If I had only known — and he hurried to wait on a customer.

Herod in Dread, Seeks to Delude Sages from East

Manger Miracle Told Over and Over As Groups Collect

JERUSALEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1. — An apprehensive Herod sits on the throne of Judah, and is much disturbed at the significance of the Messiah in Bethlehem.

This was brought to light with the recent visit here of sages from the East who were seeking the newborn King of the Jews. Having heard of their inquiries, Herod hastily called together his chief priests and scribes who write the laws, and demanded them to tell him more of the prophecies of Christ's coming.

Then he summoned the wise men for questioning, and led them to believe that, if they would go to Bethlehem, discover the Child and return and tell him about it, he would journey there himself to pay homage.

Those who heard Herod's interview with these Eastern wise men say he was given only evasive answers.

Political commentators say it is understandable that Herod should feel uneasy at the rise of a leader who will capture the imagination of a discouraged people. His reign has been a singularly unhappy one due to the pressure from Rome.

The Emperor Augustus has lately accumulated foreign property and subjects through a campaign of military invasions and controls about all in this part of the world that is worth taking. This has occupied the minds of the people, but has increased Roman extravagances. Palestine is one of these conquered countries and Herod is the King of Augustus's own choosing.

Some regard Herod's fear of a ruler who will overthrow him in a material sense as being unfounded.

They maintain that the significance of the Messiah is spiritual rather than political, and point out that he has always been prophesied as a Shepherd of Souls rather than a military deliverer.

Herod's nature, these commentators say, makes it impossible for him to understand a Prince of Peace.

Great Joy Pervades City of Bethlehem

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1. — It is impossible to describe the feeling of great joy that pervades Bethlehem today as the coming of the long-heralded Messiah is realized by the majority of its inhabitants.

The shepherds probably experienced the most poignant sensation for it was to them that the news was first given. The little group who were guarding their flocks from foxes and wolves that still roam the hills of Palestine, speak with great wondering of last night's message from the sky.

The amazing light together with the chanting of a heavenly host has brought on incoherence to their speech; but the radiance of their facts is more impressive than any words could be.

"An angel of the Lord suddenly flashed before us and the glory of the Lord shown all around us," one of them said.

"We were frightened but the angel said, "Have no fear. This is good news. I am bringing to you news of great joy that is meant for all the people. Today you have a saviour born in the town of David, the Lord, Messiah. And here is a proof to you; you will find a baby wrapped up and lying in a stall for cattle."

Then a host of heaven's army suddenly appeared beside the angel, extolling God and saying, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men."

"Having sung this song, the angel went back to heaven, the light faded away, and all was dark as before."

"We began talking together about these strange sights and sounds," the shepherd related.

"We didn't stop to think what would happen to our flocks, or wait until morning, we went at once. When we saw all was as the angel had said, we told everyone about it."

Brilliant Star Presaged Secret Mystery of Birth

JERUSALEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1. — Eminent astrologers here admit to the appearance of a new star. They say that at infrequent periods such stars, or novae, as they term them, suddenly appear with great brilliance, are evident for a time, then fade away.

Last night's star, they explained, resulted from the conjunction of two great planets, Jupiter and Saturn.

Magi's Wisdom is Greatest in World Declares Caspar

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1. — This is what Casper, one of the wise men, said about their belief:

"The wisdom of the Magi is the greatest of all wisdoms on earth, because it knows its own ignorance. And that is the secret of power. We worship fire as a symbol of Him. We keep men always looking and waiting for a new sunrise but we ourselves understand that the darkness is equal to the light and that the conflict between them will never be ended."

Herod's Spies Said Departing Hurriedly For Jerusalem

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1. — Several known spies and two synochophants of the court of King Herod, who for the greater part of the morning have been furtively watching the stable wherein the King of Glory rests in his swaddling clothes, left and came bound presumably for Jerusalem.

Herod is known to be extremely interested in the journeys of the Magi to Bethlehem.

Please tell us how to say "Merry Christmas" in Spanish. Also we would like to say "Happy New Year" as well as know something about the way Christmas is celebrated in Spanish-speaking lands.

"Feliz Navidad" is the expression for "Merry Christmas." Phonetically it is pronounced "feh-LEES nah-vee-DAHD." Although we translate it to mean "Merry Christmas," the literal meaning is "Happy Nativity."

"Prospero Ano Nuevo" may be translated "Happy New Year." This is another example in which the word meaning is not identical. In this case we are literally saying "Prosperous New Year" instead of the idiomatic meaning "Happy New Year." Phonetically the phrase is said "PROHS-peh-roh AHN yoh noo-EH-voh."

"Posado" meas "Inn" or "Lodge" and plays an important role in the celebration of Christmas in most Spanish-speaking lands. Today "Posada" represents the Christmas theme of Joseph and Mary in the search for lodging prior to the birth of "El Nino Jesus" (The Christ Child). Two groups, one assuming the Joseph and Mary role and the other representing the Innkeeper role sig their related parts until Joseph and Mary find the friendly Innkeeper who permits them to rest in the manger.

"Noche Buena" means "Christmas Eve." "Noche Buena" literally is translated "Good Night." But in the Spanish-speaking world the "Good Night" is the night befre Christmas or Christmas Eve.

Christmas expressions listed below are submitted for your holiday pleasure. You may wish to practice saying them with the recorded voice that says them for you when you dial 276-2762. HAPPY HOLIDAYS!

IMPORTANT PHRASES:

Say "Feliz Navidad." (feh-LEES nah-vee-DAHD) for "Merry Christmas."

Say "Y Prospero Ano Nuevo." (ee PROHS-pehr-roh AHN-yoh noo-EH-voh) for "And a Happy New Year."

Larry Wilson Named 'Best Scout' Of Lemon Grove Boy Scout Troop

A 13-year-old youth has been named "Best Scout" of Lemon Grove Boy Scout Troop 376 for 1970. He is Larry Wilson, 1988 Noble st., an eighth grade student at Palm Junior High School.

Wilson's selection, made at the Troop's December Court of Awards, is for all-around excellence in group functions. It includes dress, attendance and conduct.

Wilson has been a member of Troop 376 for two years and has achieved the rank of Star Scout.

The Court of Awards and a pot luck dinner were held at the Troop's sponsoring institution, St. Philip's Episcopal Church, 2660 Hary dr.

Ten Scouts earned 17 merit badges while four boys gained the rank of Star, one achieved Life, two received First Class status and two were awarded Tenderfoot ranking.

Troop 376 completed one of its most active years in 1970, according to Scoutmaster James Hill. The Scouts traveled more than 2,380 miles by land plus an additional 64 miles by water.

Their program encompassed a deep sea fishing trip, an eight day journey down the Colorado River in rafts and campouts to Picacho State Park, Seeley and Sun Beam Lake in the Imperial Valley, Palomar, Santee, Vacation Island and Silver Strand.

In addition, they won first place for all district Boy Scout Troops in the February Grossmont Scout-O-Rama and four Blue Feather awards in the April Scout Camporee at Santee.

During the year, individual Scouts earned 34 merit badges and 23 promotions in rank. In order to finance their activities, the Troop conducted a monthly newspaper drive which earned $331, collected $190 in dues, $78 from a father-son dinner and $51 in ticket sales for a Kiwanis pancake breakfast.

December merit badge winners were Larry Wilson for drafting and home repairs, Jim Wilson for home repairs and auto safety, Harold Rhodes for nature and safety, Larry Mason for hiking, camping and cooking and Gary Smith for fishing and cooking.

Society To Meet This Wednesday

The regular meeting of the Spring Valley Historical Society is scheduled for Wednesday, Jan. 6, at 7:30 p.m. in the adobe building (Bancroft Ranch House), Memory ln., Spring Valley.

The meeting will be open to the public. It will be mostly business, says president Mrs. Karna Webster.

Mrs. Webster says she understands that originally there was an addition on the east side of the adobe building. She said that the addition has been moved away for several years, but that possibly it or some of the material may still be somewhere in this area.

She asks that if anyone knows anything at all about the addition, or old pictures of the adobe, to get in touch with the Spring Valley Historical Society.

The DIMMER VIEW

All the Medi-Cal We Need

At a seminar on stock market investments recently a speaker noted that welfare-oriented industries are becoming the glamour stocks of today's investors.

Welfare, he logicalized, is here to stay; is a stable industry, and is potentially a high yield industry as a growing horde gets aboard the welfare train.

Just how right this opinion is was illustrated by some welfare developments earlier this month.

It had to do with the proposed cut in Medi-Cal benefits. We heard no organized outcry of Medi-Cal recipients although some of them will not get as much medical care as they had in the past. But such loud wailing came from industries related to the program that it would lead bystanders to believe that someone had stepped on the tube leading to the industry's oxygen tent.

Dr. Lincoln Riley, a dentist-member of Medi-Cal's advisory council, probably gave a better opinion than anyone had reason to suspect would come from those with the medical establishment.

Said he, in words we hope will go down in history with Patrick Henry's immortal utterance, "We sometimes lose sight of the fact that the taxpayers are the true underwriters of this program."

Just to bring the whole thing into proper focus it should be acknowledged that inequities are rife in the program. These inequities may include a small percentage of Medi-Cal clients who get a little less care than they want but the two great inequities are the medical satellite firms earning great profits and paying high yields to stockholders, and of course, the good and great slob taxpayer who won't raise his voice in protest.

Yet, it is this slob from whom all Medi-Cal blessings flow. He is the guy who only goes to the doctor when he is ailing. By so doing he keeps his medical bill at $312.00 a year on the average.

But the guy who has no financial respons bility gets about $517 a year in medical services provided for him.

It is not readily believable that you are sicker if you're on welfare.

And if this can be proven, someone should try to ascertain why welfare makes you sick.

Lemon Grove Junior High Lists Honor Roll Students

Over two hundred students at Lemon Grove Junior High earned recognition for achievement in either scholarship or citizenship at the close of the first reporting period. Louis Poluzzi, principal, announced that 50 pupils were named to the honor rolls and that 197 gained good citizenship club membership.

Eighth graders who boasted top marks in both scholarship and citizenship with A and O grades from all teachers in both fields were: Jim Beckham, William DeHope, Pam Haider, David Helgeson, Greg Lusitana and Roger Reinecke.

Eighth graders with O grades in citizenship, thus becoming members of the Gold Citizenship Club, were: Carlos Alcala, Kathy Blair, Denise Delmare, Thomas Engelke, Wendy Finnegan, Sam Frontiero, Steven Gardner, Paula Guenon, Charyl Hada, Ronald Keats, Richard Lorenzen, Maureen Macias, Barbara Nancarrow, Donald Parker, Pam Pearce, John Romero, Michael Spaeth, Grant Taylor, Michele Torrey, Alicia Underwood, Chris Wamsley and Dale Wineteer.

In the seventh grade three students earned all A's and O's in both subject matter and citizenship: Joe Reoux, Lauren Scheele and Annette Zaleckis. In addition to these students, the following had O grades in citizenship, thus making them all members of the Gold Citizenship Club: Karen Campbell, Pamela Cox, Deborah Ling, Mary Maca, Lillian Ulstad, and Deanna Zimmerly.

The Green Citizenship Club, which requires all O's and S's for membership, had 73 members in the eighth grade and 87 members in the seventh.

Twenty-three eighth grade pupils carried home report cards with B averages in scholarship. This entitled them to membership in the "B" Honor Roll. Students included: Carlos Alcala, Kathy Blair, Mary Brumbaugh, Denise Chiles, Thomas Engelke, Craig Evins, Steven Gardner, Cheryl Hada, Robin Hansell, Ronald Keats, Barbara Nancarrow, Colleen O'Connor, Kelly Quinn, Albert Randazzo, Jennifer Rocchio, John Romero, Michael Spaeth, Kathy Stinchcomb, Michele Torry, Alicia Underwood, Gaya Williams, Dale Wineteer, and Jackie Young.

In the seventh grade, twenty-seven earned places on the "B" Honor Roll. They included: Karen Aboroa, Cynthia Baker, Diane Bonilla, Peggy Boutelle, Karen Campbell, Diane Davis, Susan Eulette, Melinda Fogleman, Roxanne Girard, Barbara Hall, Ellen Hanbury, Kelli Hayo, Alayne Hoffman, Julie Lambert, Leborah Ling, Mary Maca, Melinda McKnight, Jozette O'Brien, Timohy O'Brien, Richard Rose, Cynthia Rusert, Gail Schedine, John Scoble, Janet Shepheard, Donna Sportsman, Lillian Ulstad, and Deanna Zimmerly.

LG Fire Report

Vehicle fires accounted for four out of the five calls the Lemon Grove Fire Department answered for the week of Dec. 14-21.

Dec. 16, there were two calls: A car, belonging to J. R. Blair, of 8012 Broadway, was damaged at 7809 Broadway, in the amount of approximately $40, due to a broken fan belt. The fire was contained in the engine compartment. The second call at 2:46 p.m., to 7396 Broadway, was regarding a motorbike, belonging to Doug Montgomery, of 8417 Roy st., Lemon Grove. The bike was damaged in the amount of approximately $150, due to leaking gasoline contacting sparks.

On Dec. 17 at 2:09 p.m., firemen went to the Richard Vigil home at 1847 La Costa. There was no fire, but there had been a flash from a heater.

Dec. 18 at 9:20 a.m., to the home of Mrs. M. Barch, 1607 Watwood. There a car had backfired, but no fire ensued.

Dec. 19 at 3:11 p.m. and firemen went to 2836 Massachusetts. There a car belonging to Alicia Haly, of 1530 Klauber, San Diego, sustained wire shorting, but there was no fire.

There were two rescue runs during the week:

Dec. 15 at 12:32 p.m., Mrs. Anna Berry, of 1740 Birdson, El Cajon, was given oxygen for a possible heart attack, at 7318 Pacific, and sent to a hospital.

Dec. 16 at 5:27 p.m., and

Local Planners Set First Meet

With the official notification that the Lemon Grove Citizens' Planning Association has been approved by the County Board of Supervisors, as of December 2, notice was given of an official executive committee meeting.

This meeting will be at 3 p.m. at the Lemon Grove Junior High school auditorium on January 14. A regular bimonthly schedule of meetings will follow, according to Dan Cherrier, County Director of Planning.

The Association will study some of the areas recommended by the general meeting earlier this year, Jim Dorman, Association president said.

All meetings are public meetings and anyone may attend.

Fred Hansen, Former Owner, Says He Waited For Years

Among properties included in the 60000 acre Rancho San Diego development, just east of Spring Valley where preliminary site improvements recently began, is the Sweetwater Ranch, formerly owned by Fred J. Hansen.

Hansen, a pioneer East County resident, is enthusiastic in his support of the recreation-oriented community, which is being planned as a complete community consisting of village clusters around a town-center complex and large open spaces.

"I've been waiting for many years for the right people to come along and have looked forward to their developing the Ranch to its natural potentials," Hansen remarked recently.

The "right people" apparently is the RSD Development Company, a subsidiary of Olson Construction, as is San Diego's F. E. Young Construction Co.

"Carl Olson's expertise in this field, as well as his knack of choosing able execusives, convinced me that he is the man I'd been waiting for," said Hansen in reference to the head of the parent company.

Hansen first came to San Diego in 1920 and was among the first residents on Mt. Helix, where he inaugurated the first commercial avocado ranches. Later he served 27 years on the San Diego County Planning Commission and was instrumental in the creation of both the Otay and La Presa Water districts — which were essential to the development of property in the Sweetwater area, where Rancho San Diego will rise.

"The support of pioneer residents like Fred J. Hansen is invaluable to the development of Rancho San Diego," Raleigh A. Kirkendall, executive vice president of RSD Development Co. said.

Self-Sustaining

Under the direction of RSD Land Co. a master concept plan is being developed by A. C. Martin & Assoc's. to provide all elements necessary for a complete, self-sustaining community.

Included will be singe-family residences, low and high-density multiples, cluster hous-

Storm Here Leaves 2.59"

More than three times as much rain has fallen this season than last, according to local meteorologist Jerry McReynolds.

The total for this year to date is 5.79 inches. This compares with 1.59 inches for the same season the year before. Rain seasons start July 1 each year.

The storm, which dumped considerable snow on the nearby mountains, produced rain in these amounts on the following dates:

Dec. 17 — .20
18 — .04
19 — .94
20 — .29
21 — .96
22 — .16

The total for the six day storm was 2.59 inches.

Home Lighting Contest Winners

The home of Robert Stanglewitcz, at 3205 Acacia, in Lemon Grove, was judged the sweepstakes winner in the Lemon Grove Christmas lights contest this week.

Runners up were the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Burgard, 8141 El Roy st., Mr. and Mrs. Mike Simpson, 2073 El Prado, and Earl J. Kirchener, 7458 Tweed st.

Trophies for the contest were donated by the San Diego Gas and Electric Company and Del Ron's engraving shop, in Lemon Grove.

Local Man Leads Al Bahr Shrine Clowns At Christmas Party

The Al Bahr Shrine Clowns, led by Ernie Johns, of 2995 Crane st., Lemon Grove, entertained for the fourth straight year at the Needy Children Christmas Party last Friday at the Naval Electronic Systems repair center at, 4008 Taylor st., San Diego.

At the party, which is sponsored each year by the Naval Electronic Systems Command, 25 youngsters from the San Diego City Schools were visited by Santa Claus and received gifts.

The clowns visit the party for about an hour, blowing up balloons, and "clowning around". Johns said that each year he is given a big jar filled with coins, and he lets the youngsters take as much as they can grab with one hand.

Each needy youngster at the party is given $20 worth of clothing, along with toys, to brighten their Christmas spirits.

Kiddies Keep Kris Kringle Busy With Late Letters

Local youngsters turned in a rash of letters to Santa Claus this week, and the letters are once again printed in the paper due to post office tie-ups.

Since there is no way to get the paper to the North Pole before Santa leaves tonight, special arrangements have been made for him to pick up a copy when he arrives here this evening.

If he has the right items requested in the letters — and if the youngsters have been good boys and girls, then he will deliver a Merry Christmas to Lemon Grove and Spring Valley.

Here are the late letters:

Dear: Santa clause

Sign Called Illegal Supervisors to Act

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — County supervisors have called for criminal action against a Lemon Grove firm because of an apparently illegal sign at 6636 Federal blvd.

Zoning Chief John Cassidy told the board that the company, Sofa Center, has erected a sign that in his opinion is more than the legal limit of 35 feet.

In August, applicannt Lee Ward applied for a 57-foot high sign and this was denied by the planning commission. He returned with a request for a rear yard variance that would have allowed the sign on top of a 35 foot bank adjacent to Freeway 94.

This variance was denied by the supervisors Wednesday.

Ward did not appear at the hearing.

The action by the county, if Ward does not remove the sign, would be a misdemeanor complaint in municipal court.

IN PIECES — This car, driven by Donald Clyde Wimberly, of 144 East Eighth st., National City, was literally smashed to pieces last Friday night. The car was traveling at a high speed southbound on Grove st., in Lemon Grove at 5:30 p.m. when the driver lost control and collided with a power pole. Wimberly was taken to County Hospital for treatment and booked in County Jail on suspicion of drunk driving. Photo by Mark Coffin.

Mats Drop First Game Go Into Consolation Bracket Of Tournament

By Leslie Carlson

The Mount Miguel basketball team lost the first game of the Kiwanis Tournament and was forced into the Consolation bracket; bounced back to win the second game, but lost the third, and was eliminated from the tourney.

Mount Miguel lost the first game in the Kiwanis Tournament last Saturday night to the undefeated Kearny Komets, 81-66, sending the Miguel team to the consolation bracket of the tourney.

In the first period, the fired-up Matadors put on a good defensive show, utilizing the full court press, but were unable to outpoint the Komets. The quarter ended with the score 10-10.

Matador standouts Tom Young and Sonny Crim forced several turnovers, but the taller Komets were able to control the Mesa College boards well enough to stay even.

In the second stanza, the roof feel in on Mount Miguel, as Kearney jumped away to an eight point lead. Midway through the period, the Mats came roaring back to within one basket, only to watch the Komets draw away to an even bigger lead, of ten points.

As the second half started, the Komets continued to burn up the nets and control the rebounds and quickly swelled their margin to 17 points.

As the game came into the final period, the Matadors staged a remarkable comeback, as John Slater and Tom Young led a barrage of Mount Miguel scoring. Young hit the nets from the outside, as Slater hit from under the boards and made off with several rebounds.

The Komets went into a fast break about halfway through the period, however, and long passes and easy baskets enabled them to win going away.

The Matadors moved to the second round of action Monday afternoon against the Point Loma Pointers, outpointing them 80-61, to move into the semi-finals.

The Miguel team put on a tremendous defensive show in the first period, as Point Loma was unable to score. John Slater and Sonny Crim led the Miguel team to an 11-0 lead in the first few minutes.

Point Loma managed to get on track before the quarter was over, however, and the period ended with The Matadors sporting a 22-14 edge.

The Pointers picked up the pace in the second period and closed the gap to 37-32 by half time.

Tom Young came to life in the third period to lead the Matadors as they drew away from the Pointers, 57-48. In the final stanza, the Mount Miguel team made it look easy as Tim Miller and Mike Bruner hit from the outside in a 23-point quarter.

On Tuesday night, the Matadors made a go of it for three quarters, but saw three starters foul out in the last period, as they lost to Crawford, 74-64.

The Mats fell behind by four at the end of the first period, but came bouncing back to lead at the half. The game was tied going into the final Stanza, but Slater, Young, and Bruner all fouled out, and Crawford drew away for the win.

Because she said spaghetti is her favorite dish, the National Macaroni Institute named Mrs. Richard Nixon "Macaroni Woman of the Year".

Motorists Warned

For safe and happy holidays, start exercising extra care on the streets and highways at noon today, Captain V. J. Herz, of the California Highway Patrol advised.

"Our records show that December 24 is usually a bad day for accidents. Last year, 22 people died in traffic accidents on Christmas Eve, compared to 15 on December 23 and 13 December 25.

"In 1968, the fatality toll rose from 11 On December 23 to 27 on December 24; it dropped back to 18 on Christmas day.

Monte Vista Bucketeers Make Finals In Kiwanis Tournament

Monarchs Take Three Games To Make Finals

By Tom Blattler

The Monte Vista basketbal team, top-seeded in the Kiwanis Tournament, won its first three games of the tourney, and were scheduled to take part in the championship game last night at San Diego State College.

On Saturday night, the Monarchs were led by senior forward Gary Earle, who had 25 points. Center Allen Bunting was the only other Monarch to score in double figures with 14. Starters Jack Cross, Bob Papciak, and Carl Stucky all chipped in with nine points.

Monte Vista had the lead from the start and never let up, as the Granite Hills Eagles fell behind at the end of the first quarter, 22-11.

In the second stanza, Monte Vista outscored the Eagles, 18-8, to lead at halftime, 40-19. By the end of the third quarter, the Monarchs had extended their margin to 63-30.

The final period was played by the reserves of both teams. The Monarchs again outscored Granite Hills, this time 21-12. That period was the icing on the cake for Monte Vista, as they won 84-42.

In the El Cajon game Monday night, Monte Vista led by just one point, 17-16, at the end of the first quarter. The Monarchs were led by their two forwards, Gary Earle and Jack Cross.

Monte Vista led at halftime, 33-30, after the Monarchs had outscored the Braves, 16-14, in the second period.

In the second half, the Monarchs pulled away from El Cajon. Monte Vista outscored the Braves, 19-12, in the third quarter. The Monarchs scored 15 points to El Cajon's 10 points in the final stanza. The final score was 67-52 in favor of the Monarchs.

The leading scorer for the Monarchs was again forward Gary Earle with 19 tallies. Allen Bunting and Jack Cross both were in the double figure category. Bunting had 16 and Cross recorded 15.

Cross also had an excellent defensive game, as he held El Cajon's Mike Grover to 8 points. Grover's average was 21.6 points per game.

On Tuesday night the Monarchs, slipped by the tough Patrick Henry Patriots, 55-53, at Grossmont College.

The Monarchs were led by their senior forward Gary Earle with 19 points. 6-foot-7 center Allen Bunting contributed 13 and guard Bob Papciak had 12 tallies.

The Monarchs employed their tenacious press and jumped into the lead, 24-23, at the end of the half. Earle was the Monarchs leading point getter with 10.

In the third stanza, Monte Vista looked like they were going to pull away from Patrick Henry as they led by ten points at one time. But Tibbs and Service brought the Patriots back to within two at the quarter's end, 40-38.

The final period was a stalemate with both teams scoring 15 points. Patrick Henry tried to press the Monarchs, but Monte Vista kept its cool and when the Patriots began to foul Monte Vista, the Monarchs calmly sank their free throws.

Monarchs Overwhelm Matadors To Take Valley Wrestling Title

By Tom Blattler and Walt Ekard

The Monte Vista High School wrestling team caught Mount Miguel a little bit red in the face last Friday night, as the Monarchs scored a 40-10 win over the Matadors in what was billed as a showdown between the top two teams in the County.

The Monarchs got off to a quick start as freshman Jeff Callahan upset one of the Matadors top wrestlers, Jim Minor. In the second weight division, Mount Miguel's Dale Siscon, who has yet to lose a match in the past three years, helped his team to rebound briefly, scoring a pin over Rick Morris.

David Brodwolf gave the Monarchs the lead again in the 112-lb. class, scoring an upset over Mickey Allenson. Mount Miguel came back in the 120-lb. division as Gino Cesena won his match over Gary Uyeda.

Monte Vista then won the next two matches before Mount Miguel could get back on the scoreboard with a draw in the 138-lb. class.

Monte Vista won the remaining six matches to smother the Miguel team.

Although the score was lopsided, the meet was closer than it appears on paper. At least five of the Monte Vista wins could have gone either way, in fact one, a match between Richard Weathers and Greg Robinson, nearly did.

Weathers and Robinson, wrestling in the 165-lb. class, provided the most exciting match of the evening, as Robinson came within a whisker of pinning Monte Vista's Weathers.

Weathers fought back tremendously, however, and pinned the tiring Robinson with only eight seconds left on the clock. Had Robinson been able to come up with the pin, and two or three other Mount Miguel wrestlers had done as well as they were expected, the meet would have been within a couple of points.

The win for Monte Vista gave the Monarchs revenge for last year's stunning loss at the hands of the Matadors, and the inside track to the Grossmont League title.

The two teams will take part in tournaments over Christmas vacation, and will return to league action January 8. Mount Miguel will travel to El Cajon that day, while Monte Vista will host Santana.

Ice Show Tribute To Sonja Henie

A dramtic tribute to Sonja Henie, ice skating's immortal star who died in 1969, opens the 26th edition of Holiday on Ice, which plays Jan. 19-24, at the San Diego International Sports Arena.

The setting for the lavish production number is Sun Valley, where the Norwegian skating sensation made her most popular movie, "Sun Valley Serenade." The picture's original music, played by the Glen Miller orchestra, is incorporated into the number.

Performances are at 8 p.m. on Jan. 19, 20 and 21; 8:30 p.m. on Jan. 22; 11 a.m., 3:30 and 8:30 p.m. on Jan. 23; 1 and 6 p.m. on Jan. 24.

Tickets, priced at $5.50, $5, $4 and $3, are on sale at all the Sports Arena Ticket Office. Call 224-4176 for ticket information.

Special discounts of one-half off for children under 16 and $1 off for military personnel are in effect for the following performances: Jan. 19, 20 and 21 at 8 p.m.; Jan. 23 at 11 a.m. and 3:30 p.m.; Jan. 24 at 6 p.m. Military discounts are available through Special Services offices.

Helix Gridders Get Awards At Annual Banquet

Awards were given to the outstanding Helix football players of the season at the annual football banquet Tuesday night Dec. 15, in the Helix cafeteria.

On the varsity team, the most valuable lineman was Dave Jones, "Iron man" of the year was Dan Castro, and the outstanding hitter of the season was Jim Fristo. Frank Woolrich was named the most outstanding all-around player of the year.

Most valuable offensive player of the junior varsity team was Larry Kajorlie and most valuable defensive player was Scott Drummond.

Steve Coover, varsity captain and most valuable back, received a plaque as did the junior varsity captains, Jim French and Ernie Bonillo.

BWL Bowlers Tack High League Scores

The Lemon Grove Business Women's League Plaza Beautification bowling league reports high scores for the week ending December 8: Doc Cooper, 230 game and 655 high series; Tom Ward, 631; Harold Franklin, 232 game; Crap Shooters, 2005 high team series; Crap Shooters, bowled by Harold Franklin, Esther Congdon, Thelma Northrop and Mickey Congdon, high team game of 702.

Thelma Northrup led with a 660 series; Vada Leana, a 636 series; Thelma Northrop, a 244 game and Mary Claar, a 231 game for the ladies high bowlers.

Seasonal high scores were held by Tom Stoner, Doc Cooper, Al Huebsch, Art Chappelle, Ruby Thomas, Thelma Northrop, Ruth Willingham, and Belma Middleton.

Assets, Inc. bowled by Kay and Dick Speaks and Marge and Ken Hall held high seasonal team scores, as did Mira Monte Trailer Park, bowled by Ruth and Lawson Willingham, and Doris and Pete Murach, ending the thirteenth week of bowling.

Gulls Set For Bucks On Saturday Evening

The San Diego Gulls and Portland Buckaroos meet Saturday night in the Sports Arena in the opening game of a three-game holiday home stand for the Gulls.

Following Saturday night's game, the Gulls will host the hot Salt Lake Golden Eagles on Wednesday night, December 30, and then start off the New Year with a game against the Phoenix Roadrunners on Friday, January 1.

The Gulls played in Phoenix last night.

San Diego opened this week's activity with a three-game losing streak, their longest of the season, and a precarious hold on second place in the Western Hockey League.

The Gulls lost a pair of games in Portland last week, 3-0 and 8-4, and then returned home Sunday night and dropped a 4-1 decision to the Seattle Totems. The Gulls held a one-point lead over Seattle at the start of the week, and the Totems had four games in hand.

Saturday night's battle against the Buckaroos will conclude a five-game December series between the Gulls and Portland. The Bucks, paced by goaltender Jim McLeod, won three of the first four meetings this month.

Try-outs Planned For 'Andy Williams'

New arrangements this year for two categories of applicants to play in the 1971 Andy Williams San Diego Open Golf Tournament on Jan. 28-31 at Torrey Poines Golf Course have been annouced by executive director Norrie West.

Amateurs (2 handicap or better) and professionals who are not members of the PGA's Tournament Players Division must play in a pre-qualifying 18-hole "try-out" on Friday, Jan. 22 at Carlton Oaks Country Club.

The low 20 per cent of the Friday competition will join TPD players who are not exempt for the AWSDO in the final 18-hole qualifying on Monday, Jan. 25 at both North Torrey Pines and Carlton Oaks.

Entry deadline for the Friday try-out is 6 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 20. Applications are available at AWSD headquarters in the LeBaron Hotel, Mission Valley, until Jan. 14 when tournament headquarters move to the Torrey Pines Inn.

Entry fees are $25 for amateurs and $50 for non-TPD pros, the latter fee including an extra $25 for limited TPD memberships.

A field of some 250 players is probable for the Monday competition, AWSDO officials estimate. From this group, about 15 low scorers from each course will qualify for the Open, joining 114 exempt players in the fourth annual $150,000 AWSDO beginning on Thursday, Jan. 28.

Local Man Has Multi-Million Dollar Operation Going Here

A man who came to Lemon Grove just a year ago has developed a multi-million dollar business in educational toys. The toy is a "Talking Book."

The man, Nial Castle, 50, who invented it, has sold more than 500,000 of the devices. The books are in the $4 to $5 field. He manufactures the devices in a warehouse at 3615 Costabella with the help of 22 persons at mid-year peak production period. The production rate is about 1,400 a day.

The talking book is a two-inch thick publication which has a fairly short story such as "Mother Goose", "The Night Before Christmas", or "Bozo and his ABC Zoo" and fifteen other popular titles.

The remaining thickness of the book is the "talking" device. The youngster turns a dial with his forefinger which turns a seven-inch record. The record tells the story as the youngster follows the printed words. The record consists of about 550 words and takes five minutes to play.

All others are professional recordings, too.

Talking Books are sold through Montgomery-Wards, John Plain Co., Toys r Us, Aldens, and all catalog houses. His first major overseas shipment went out earlier this year to Australia.

The manufacturing is done with the firm's own 75-ton plastic injection molding machine which accepts 4-6 ounces of materials. Castle has ordered two more machines for installation next year. Even so, his machines are booked solid for 1971, he said, and no order will be accepted for next year's delivery.

Earlier this year his product was the subject of a full page in Family Weekly magazine, and inquiries have been coming in from all over the United States.

It achieved quick acceptance because of the combination of educational qualities and the muscular coordination aspects.

Castle, who lives on Lester ave. in Lemon Grove, sees a production and sales level of a half-million units a year within five years.

He believes his potential is controlled only by production ability.

"We don't want to be a full-fledged production line operation," he said. "We want to get as much quality into our products as possible. With youngsters given to rough treatment of their playthings, we have to build our devices as sturdy as possible. Because there are moving parts we must make certain there will be no quick malfunction of the reproducers."

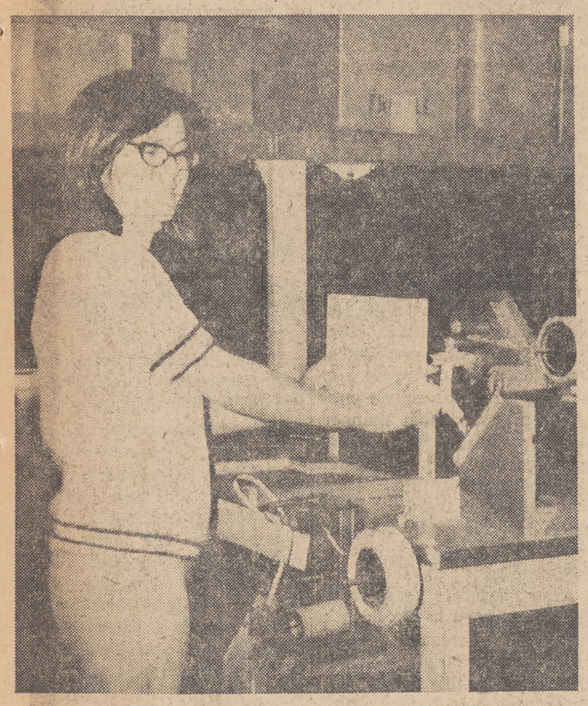
It is a safe bet that his products stand up to his promises otherwise the re-orders wouldn't have him swamped for 1971.

His wife, Kay, is associated with him. She is vice president of the firm.

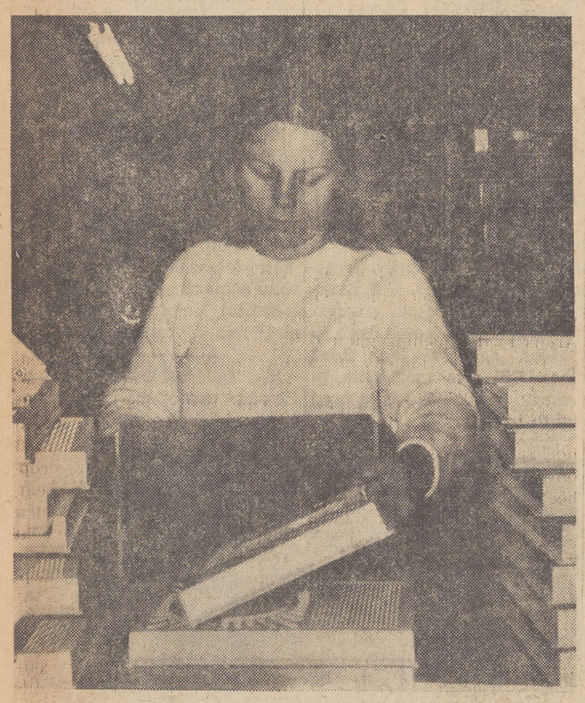
The couple hold tight patents on the device.

One of the side benefits of the device is that parents of handicapped children find it helpful. These youngsters are getting knowledge in fun that they formerly got as the result of a lot of effort on the part of the parents and teachers.

"What's more, the youngsters enjoy themselves while they are learning," Castle said.



TAPE JIG — Connie Clemmons, 19, places the case in the Tape jig. After this operation, the case will receive its cover.



TAPING — Pat St. John, 19, handles taping of the case and checking the face of the book in her portion of the operation. When the case is taped, it is ready to receive the backing and cover.

TESTING— Diana Hicks, 22, of Lemon Grove, tests the mechanism to be sure that the sound device is operating correctly. After this station, the case will be prepared for taping.

The first free school supported by taxes was at Dedham, Mass.

INSPECTOR — Cathy Treinen, 20, of Lemon Grove, inspects the record installation to make sure it turns freely and is in the correct adjustment and prepares the case for taping.

FINISHED PRODUCT — Diana Hicks displays two of the finished products after completion of the assembly line. The company manufactures several different books, including the two shown above, Tommy and his Drum, and Bozo and his ABC Zoo.

Petition Nears Completion For Future Broadway Improvements

Bob Russell, president of the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce, is sure that Broadway will have a new look in the near future, as only a few more signatures are needed on the petition calling for landscaped center islands and improved parking areas.

Russell told a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce last week that the petitions, which requires signatures of 60% of the property owners along the strip to be improved, now bears the signatures of 50% of the owners.

Russell said that he has been assured that at least the number of needed signatures will be signed soon. "We're ging to get it through," he said.

Russell expects to have the necessary signatures by the first week of January, he said.

The improvements called for by the petition include landscaping the center islands with ornamental shrubs, moving existing light poles to the median, and paving and striping of existing parking areas.

The County already plans to improve Broadway, which includes installing the median strip, paving the parking area, and installing curbs.

The added improvements — the landscaped medians, and

California Ballet Co. Plans Four Performances

By Lynn Jones

The California Ballet Company will present the traditional "Nutcracker Suite" in four performances in Russ Auditorium on December 26 and 27 at 2:30 and 8 p.m. each day.

Included on the program is the Second Act of the extremely popular Ballet, "Coppelia."

The production is the first major offering of the California Ballet following consolidation with the San Diego Ballet Company in September.

Lynn Jones

Both Ballets, under the direction of Robert and Maxine Mahon, will feature new costuming, sets, and choreography.

"Nutcracker Suite" includes all major variations from the world-famed classic. The dance of the Sugarplum Fairy, Trepak, Spanish, and the famous Waltz of the Flowers are only a few of the beautiful and exciting soloist works featured.

"Coppelia" is the world-famous classic about an old toymaker whose dolls come to life, causing humorous chaos and consternation.

The program adds up to ideal Christmas entertainment, certain to add that Yuletime Glow to youngsters and oldsters alike.

Tickets are priced at $2, $3, $4, $5, and are available at all Metro Ticket Agencies or at the San Diego Ballet Centre, 3255 Fifth Ave. For more information call 295-4161 or 295-8455.

Bobby Sherman will be here in person in the Convention Hall for a concert at 7 p.m. this Saturday. Appearing with him will be his four piece band called Sugar Bear, and an accompanying act called Georgia Overdrive.

It has been reported that Sherman has sold more records than any single performer since Elis Presley. His six gold singles and four gold albums account for more than $20 million worth of record sales. The most popular ones have included "Hey, Little Woman," "Easy Come, Easy Go" and "Julie Do You Love Me?"

Bobby Serman is a native of Santa Monica. He went to Gault Elementary and Birmingham High Schools in Van Nuys. His favorite pastime was playing football. He occasionally sang at parties and one night a group of Hollywood celebrities heard him. They later decided to sponsor his career.

Sherman collected his first fans on the television show 'Shindig," and moved into guest spots on "Honey West," "The Monkees" and 'The FBI" before taking the role of Jeremy Bolt, the youngest of three brothers who own a logging camp on the comedy-adventure series, "Here Come the Brides."

"Christmas in the Land of Oz," which was a story of Dorthy's visit to Oz at Christmastime, was presented by Concerts Showcase at 2:30 and 7:30 Tuesday in the Sports Arena as a benefit for the San Diego Chapter of the Arthritis Foundation and underprivileged children.

The show was produced and directed by Raoul Appel and the featured veteran singer Frankie Laine as the Wizard with a cast of nearly a thousand singers and dancers. Nanci Hunter appeared as Dorothy and Beverly Faucher played her cousin with Steve Ward as the Scarecrow, Wayne Smith as the Tin Woodman and Frank Doyle as the Cowardly Lion.

Music for the show was arranged by Otis Skillings, a Los Angeles composer and arranger, and Dick Braun conducted the orchestra of 22 San Diego area musicians for the production.

The program was presented on five stages, each representing a different part of Oz, connected by a blue brick road that was going around the perimeter of a sheet of ice on the floor of the arena.

Participating groups were the California Ballet Company, the American Jazz Dance Company, the Fantasy Singers and Skaters, the San Diego Figure Skating Club, the Holiday Singers and the San Diego Highland and Cygany dancers.

Some of the production numbers were "We're Off to Find the Gremlin," "Oz Is Getting to Look a Lot Like Christmas," "Ding Dong the Witch Is Dead," "Somewhere Over the Rainbow," "Emerald City Greets You" and "Oz Is Wishing You a Merry Christmas."

56 Seniors Are Early Graduates

Monte Vista High School will bid bon voyage to 56 Monarchs, who with a little extra effort and a sacrifice of seven weeks of summer, will be graduated at mid-term.

Four Gridders Get Honors At USIU

Four members of last fall's successful United States International University football team were hnored this week by being selected to the U. of California at Riverside All-Opponent team.

Selected on the offensive team were Mike George, 210-pound senior guard from San Diego, and Gary Miller, 230-pound senior center from Anaheim.

The only other team getting as many as four selections was Cal State, Fullerton.

During the past season, the USIU Westerners had a 7-3 record for the second year in a row, and defeated U. C. Riverside, 30-16.

REHEARSAL—Students at San Miguel School, in Lemon Grove, rehearsed last Friday morning for the annual Christmas Program at the school. The program was presented for parents and students at the school Friday evening.

Helix French Students Hold Indian Party

Today's Indians are not the austere warriors on horseback of yesteryear, but happy, warm people, as the French students at Helix found out at their Indian Christmas party Dec. 14, in the school cafeteria.

The Christmas party, the third of its kind at Helix, was planned and carried out, under the guidance of Angele Auger, by the French students at Helix.

For several weeks before the party the students collected clothes, toys and candy. Girls in the French classes made large flannel stockings for each of the Indian children. Presents were wrapped and two Christmas trees were decorated for the party.

Mrs. Rosalie Robertson, an Indian woman well known in this area for work with her people, brought about 75 area Indian children and their families to the party Dec. 14.

Mrs. Robertson personally contacted many of the Indian families to invite them to the Christmas party, the first party of this nature for many of them.

Pads Rank 3rd In National Loop Home Run Derby

The San Diego Padres were the National League's third best home run hitting club last season and the league's sixth best slugging team, according to official 1970 statistics.

In their second season, the Padres placed several players among the league leaders: Clarence Gaston finished 6th among all hitters, pitcher Danny Coombs ranked ninth in earned run average among pitchers, Pat Dobson paced all pitchers with sacrifice hits and finished second in fielding.

And the Padres as a club improved considerably their entire offensive performance last year.

Their team batting average jumped to .246 from .225 a year earlier, their run production went to 681 from 468 and they made 1353 hits as compared to 1203 the previous season.

San Diego's 172 homers, nearly double the team's 1969 output of 99, was topped only by Cincinnati's 191 and Chicago's 179.

And the Padres, playing in a home park not favoring the long ball, hit 105 of their homers on the road.

Two Local Girls Are Finalists For A.F.S.

Two Mount Miguel high school students, Sally Tomlinson and Gina Cordova, have been chosen as finalists for the American Field Service program.

Sally Tomlinson

Sally, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Tomlinson, 8757 Kelso st., Spring Valley, is a senior at Mt. Miguel. The petite, brown-eyed girl entered the A.F.S. competition because she feels that if the youth of the world could communicate, it would be a better place in the future. She is also very interested in people of other countries and wants to know more about them.

Gina Cordova, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cordova, 1737 Glencoe dr., Lemon Grove, is the other finalist. Gina entered the contest because she thought the A.F.S. program sounded interesting. She wants to meet people of other countries and is anxious to learn their customs and ways.

A.F.S. co-cordinator Charles Engberg said that "the A.F.S. program is the most valuable one the school can offer. It lets students expand their horizons and brings the world closer."

Applicants are selected after interviews with A.F.S. officials after which the field is narrowed to two students.

When chosen as an A.F.S. student abroad, it costs each person $950, for travel and other expenses.

Sally and Gina must now await the final decision which will be made in New York in the near future.

Area Firm Sets 'Career Day'

The first annual High School Career Day has been set by The Southland Corp. in La Mesa . . . this is word from division manager S. R. Dole. Bill Wootton, zone manager for the firm, has been named chairman of the event, which is co-sponsored by Grossmont Boy Scout Explorers.

Career Day is planned for February 26 and will involve eight schools in the Grossmont High School district, with some 800 students participating.

The intent of Career Day is to interest young people in considering business and all its related fields for future occupations. Students will spend an entire day involved in the various aspects of business at a number of firms in the east county.

A dinner is planned in the evening for all 800 students, boy scouts, and store officials.

Southland operates 7-Eleven stores and Bradshaw markets in San Diego County.

Film At Lodge

A film showing "One Way to Better Cities" will be at the Lemon Grove Masonic Lodge Jan. 4 at 6:30 p.m. The film, a production of the Statewide Homeowners Assn., tells how the present property tax structure perpetuates slums and skyrockets prices.

The showing will follow the Masonic stated meeting and is open to wives and guests of Masons.

Two Local Students Making Soil Tests

By Kathi Mallec

Two Mount Miguel students of Charles Engberg's biology class, Kit Coussin and Robert Bowersox, are conducting tests to determine the acidity in the soil surrounding the high school.

The tests, which take ten minutes each, are taken in 10 spots around the campus, and a special chemical is used to determine the acid content.

Engberg feels these tests may show why so many trees die off or never grow to any extent. He also points out this may also explain why the pipes buried in the ground detiorate so fast.

Long before this area was a school, it was occupied by a pig farm. Principal Melven C. Grant feels this may account partly for the soil conditions.

The construction of the tennis courts, built shortly after the school was established, was long and drawnout project. At first, the courts were built in the usual manner, starting with grading and the usual cushion of gravel. Then it was discovered that the soil was mobile, so that contracted when dry, and expanded when wet. This resulted in huge surface cracks.

After several years it became necessary to dig down a foot or so to create a cushion of decomposed granite and clay. After this, the usual asphalt layer was installed followed by a special rubber coating. This resulted in a very adequate playing surface —some of the best courts in the county are found here.

The pipes were another matter that were affected by the soil. The first gas pipelines sprang leaks for about 80 feet, down by the flagpole. After removing the pipes, maintenance men discovered the acid soil had eroded the metal. Another type of pipe was installed, wrapped with cloth and tar to withstand the erosive substance. It wasn't long before it sprang leaks also.

The district maintenance department moved all the pipelines to the roof of the buildings. There has been no problem since.

Helix Speech Team Takes Sweepstakes

Helix High School's Speech Team talked its way to fifth place sweepstakes at the El Cajon All-State Speech Tournament Dec. 11 and 12 at El Cajon High School.

Two seniors did an outstanding job in debate as well as in the oratory and extemporenious classifications. Bill Smelko and Steve Booth, competing with debate teams from 35 various schools, took third place. Bill also took fifth in oratory while Steve placed eighth in extempt.

Publication Gets Awards

Mt. Miguel High School's yearbook, Mil Memorias, has just received two awards for the 1970 publication.

The yearbook received a first place rating in the senior high school category from Columbia Scholastic Press Association, acquiring 922 points out of a possible 1000 points.

From National Scholastic Press Association, the yearbook won a first class honor rating, scoring 6,320 points.

Though the staff is delighted about the awards, they are not surprising. Through the past 11 years, Mil Memorias has placed 10 times in the first place category from NSPA, and nine times from Columbia. The yearbook has also received a medalist award for their 1969 publication, the highest rating possible.

According to advisor Lowell Plinke, the staffs have worked very hard to receive the ratings they have acquired through the years.

Columbia Scholastic Press Asociation commented that, "Mil Memorias is a book of solid achievement that reflects technical know-how of the staff and advisor."

The Tabernacle at Salt Lake City has one of the finest pipe organs in the country.

SANTA COMES TO TOWN — Santa Claus, as he is portrayed by Louis Poluzzi, principal of Lemon Grove Junior High, passes out goodies and takes orders of Lemon Grove pre-school children. Santa dropped in on the children at the Lemon Grove Pre-school last Friday morning before the youngsters took their Christmas vacation.

District Seeking Citizens For Study Of Education Curriculum

The Grossmont High School District is seeking interested citizens to serve on a committee to examine the district's family life education curriculum.

Citizens or organizations desiring membership on the committee should write a letter of application to Dr. Stanley McClintic at the Grossmont District. Deadline for applications is January 4, 1971.

The purpose of the citizens' advisory committee on family life education will include reviewing instructional materials and films, as well as making reccomendations on course content. When the committee reaches a consensus, hopefully we will have community support for the course," said McClintic.

During 1970 a staff of district teachers assembled a basic course outline for family life education and at this time is seeking citizens' cooperation in evaluating the curriculum through an advisory committee. The faculty committee has proposed a substantial change in the way family life instruction and sex education are handled in the Grossmont District.

According to the curriculum proposal, all the various facets of the subject which are taught in a variety of courses presently, would be pulled together and consolidated into a single course, offered at the tenth grade level and made a requirement for graduation by 1974.

The course would be coeducational and feature such topics as personality development, family, emotional and physical growth, dating, early marriage, engagement and marriage, family problems, and abnormal sex behavior.

In addition, there would be a five-week unit on teenagers and the law, venereal disease, narcotics, tobacco, and alcohol. There would also be a unit on careers in the 18-week semester course.

"This arrangement would not necessarily preclude family life instruction in other courses," said McClintic, "but the idea is for the student to receive a unified, rather than a piecemeal understanding of sex, and its physical and social consequences."

Membership on the family life education citizens' advisory committee will be composed of 14 members. They will include a member of the governing board, a district administrator, and the faculty chairman of the family life education committee.

Special Day Planned At Methodist Church

A "Student Recognition" day has been scheduled at Foothills United Methodist Church, for Sunday, Dec. 27 at both the a.m. services. There also will be "open house" at the parsonage.

WALL-TO-WALL WHEELS — The County of San Diego Honor Camps have been working all year to add to San Diego children's Christmas joy. Mrs. Brigadier Burton Dumerton, 7142B London Lane, Lemon Grove, checks a part of the bicycles, tricyles, and wagons waiting at the Salvation Army Distribution Center this Christmas. The toys were collected in last year's drive. During the year, County Honor Camp inmates repaired, painted, and sent them back shiny and "new" to the Salvation Army.

Post Office Closed 2 Days

Both the Lemon Grove and Spring Valley Post Offices will be closed Christmas Day and the day following, it was announced today.

There will be no deliveries nor window service either day.

The following Friday, New Years Day, both shops will again be closed. But regular Saturday service will be provided Jan. 2.

During the gold rush days in California, St. Joseph, Mo. was the last white settlement before prospectors crossed the plains to the west.

Bus Districts Eyed By Firm

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — Lemon Grove and Spring Valley may soon be asked to form a service district to help pay the monthly deficit of the S. D. Transit bus service — the bus line which serves much of the county.

San Diego City taxpayers are presently paying a 10 cent property tax to support the bus system.

Several cities adjacent to San Diego have already been billed for the service but none have paid. The Board of Supervisors did not approve a monthly charge of $3,411 a month Tuesday which would have been the charge to the unincorporated territory.

The transit firm has deferred until April 1 a discussion for eliminating service to non-contributing areas.

Grossmont District Offers Course In Drug Education

"Drugs and the Family Crisis," a new course offered by the Grossmont District Adult School for teenagers and adults, will begin Tuesday, January 12.

The class will be held Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 7 to 9 p.m. in the Special Education Building, rooms 2 and 3 on the Grossmont High School campus.

According to Director of Pupil Personnel Services for the Grossmont District, Dr Nicholas Mallek, "the course is a series of community interaction sessions to afford opportunities for parents and youth to communicate with others with regard to common family and drug-culture concerns.

"The course will provide information regarding drug use, misuse, and abuse, the legal and social implications, and family interrelationships."

Course enrollment is open at no fee for adults, young adults, and high school age youth. The course is only three weeks long, with two sessions per week. It will be repeated throughout the spring semester.

"I believe drug abuse is a people problem. I've been amazed to find that with the students and families whom I've counselled concerning drug problems, there is generally a tremendous lack of communication between members of the family unit. This lack of interpersonal relationships is one of the more serious problems in our society today," said Mallek.

The six sessions in the course cover the following topics: What are we Talking About?; Our Chemical Culture; What Do We Value?; Is it Legal?; Is It Worth the Risk?; and Don't Blow It — Make Up Your Mind.

For more information about the program, interested persons may call the Grossmont District Adult School r the Pupil Personnel Services office. Both offices may be reached by callig 465-3131, any weekday btween 8 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.

Pre-registration Opens For USIU Class

The period for pre-registering for classes of United States International University's Conservatory in the Performing Arts Winter Quarter has begun, it was announced this week by Gordon Hilker, Director of the School of Performing Arts, 350 Cedar st.

Students can sign now for classes which begin the week of Jan. 4 and continue for 10 weeks. Nearly 50 different courses in dance music and theatre are being offered, an increase over the fall quarter of more than one-fourth.

Pre-registration is advised, Hilker continued, to insure students being enrolled in the classes of their choice. Pre-registration concludes Dec. 31.

USIU Grapplers To Be Idle

The United States International University wrestlers, who placed fourth in the Phoenix Open last week, will be idle until Jan. 7 when they meet San Diego State College on the home mats.

Wilkerson said he was pleased with the performance of his team at Phoenix against some of the best competition in the West and Southwest.

Van Gets OK on Bills To Help Clean Air

WASHINGTON — The 91st Congress in its waning days has given final approval to Clean Air legislation incorporating the basic thrust of two major proposals by Rep. Lionel Van Deerlin, D-San Diego, for eliminating pollution caused by automobiles.

The strongest feature of the bill, a requirement that the auto industry produce a virtually smog-free engine by the beginning of 1976, is similar to a recommendation made last spring by Van Deerlin to the House Commerce Committee.

The San Diego Congressman, a senior member of the Committee, urged adoption of an amendment to phase out all internal combustion engines by 1978 unless they could be made as "clean" as such alternate propulsion systems as steam and gas turbines.

The requirement finally adopted is even more stringent, in that it would give auto manufacturers less time for corrective action than Van Deerlin's proposal would have allowed.

Under the bill, the industry can apply for a one-year extension of the deadlines mandated by Congress, but only if such applications are submitted by January 1, 1972.

"The manufacturers thus would be assured of an early decision on whether an extension would be granted, and what I regard as adequate lead time to perfect whatever modifications are necessary to meet the new standards set by Congress," Van Deerlin said.

Van Deerlin also had proposed inspection procedures to ascertain the effectiveness of emission control devices after they have been in operation for at least 4,000 miles. He said that while a high percentage of the devices currently in use are believed defective, there is nothing in existing federal law to make manufacturers responsible for the performance of the smog control systems.

The bill which finally cleared Congress calls for the eventual implementation of 50,000-mile performance warranties on the devices, a requirement which Van Deerlin said "will take the onus from the automobile owner and put it where it belongs, on the manufacturer."

S.D. Zoo Gets Six Penguins

Six immigrants from the Southern Hemisphere hopped kangaroo-like into their new home in the San Diego Zoo this week.

However, the newcomers are not kangaroos. They are rockhopper penguins, named for their distinctive style of moving about by hopping with both feet togther instead of the more typical penquin waddle.

The rockhoppers are also unusual because of the feathers which frame their faces. They have bright yellow plumes extending from their bills to their eyes, and the bill and eyes are red in color.

Rockhoppers, although highly popular because of their comical appearance and means of locomotion, are not often exhibited in zoos, said K. C. Lint, curator of birds. The San Diego Zoo has been without the species since mid-1969.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Sealed proposals will be received at the Office of the Board of Supervisors, Room 306, County of San Diego Administration Center, 1600 Pacific Highway, San Diego, California, 92101, until 2:00 o'clock P.M. on Thursday, January 7, 1971, at or about which time they will be publicly opened and read in the same building in the Board of Supervisors Chambers, for construction in accordance with the specifications therefor, to which special reference is made, of portions of County Highway, as follows:

Construction of A Traffic Signal and Safety Lighting System at the Intersection of Jamacha Road (D 19) and Elkelton Blvd. in the Vicinity of La Presa

ENGINEER'S ESTIMATE

Item	Quantity	Discription
1.	Lump Sum	Construction of A Traffic Signal and Safety Lighting System

In accordance with Section 1773 of the California Labor Code, the Board of Supervisors has determined the prevailing basic rate of per diem wages, inclusive of fringe benefits, a copy of which may be seen in the office of the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, Document No. 46(7-28-70).

The foregoing quantities are approximate only, being given as a basis for the comparison of bids, and the Board of Supervisors does not, expressly or by implication, agree that that the actual amount of work will correspond therewith, but reserves the right to increase or decrease the amount of any class or portion of the work, as may be deemed necessary or expedient by the said Board of Supervisors.

All bids are to be compared on the basis of the Engineer's Estimate of the quantities of work to be done.

No bid will be accepted from a Contractor who is not licensed under Chapter 9, Division 3, Business and Professions Code, or to whom a proposal form has not been issued.

The attention of bidders is particularly directed to the provisions of Sections 8-1.01 and 8-1.02 of the Specifications regarding subcontracting and assignment of the contract, respectively.

Plans, forms of proposals, bonds, contract, special provisions and specifications may be examined at the Office of the County Engineer, Bldg. 2, 5555 Overland Avenue, San Diego, California, 92123. Copies of plans and specifications may be obtained at said Office upon payment of $8.40. If payment is made by check, it should be made payable to the "County of San Diego". NO REFUND WILL BE MADE.

No bid will be received unless it is made on a form furnished by the County Engineer, and is accompanied by the security referred to therein. Forms of bid proposal and bonds may be obtained at the County Engineer's Office.

The Board of Supervisors reserves the right to reject any or all bids, and the right to waive irregularities or informalities in any bonds or in the bidding.

NO LIGHTS — This Christmas tree, at the Christian Church of Lemon Grove, was decorated in an unusual way. Instead of the traditional ornaments and colored lights, the tree bears warm and colorful clothing, which will be sent to children in Korea immediately following Christmas. Many of the gifts on the tree were given by children of the Christian Church Sunday School.

Dear, santa
I am nine years old sometimes I believe in you but sometimes I don't. I don't no why but I know there used to be a real santa. But now I realize, but I'll tell you the things I want for Christmas. I want a whirl-o paint and a tiny swing doll and there was a teddy bear at the store it was a dalmation puppy. Then I wanted some puzzles and a Black Beauty Book and some games like don't break the ice and ants in the pants. If you want to you can give some of my toys to the needy children I hope some other children would get in. I was going to go back east it was 160 dollars my mom and dad would pay it but I was going with my ant Jane I can't go because it is interfering with my ant's gob she could loose her gob so we are going in fanuary and we would be hitting most of the snow.

Rosary Said For Lovina Griggs, Lifetime Resident

Rosary was recited Tuesday evening at Goodbody's Boulevard Chapel for Mrs. Lovina A. Griggs, 66, 7575 Central ave., Lemon Grove, who died Sunday in a nursing home. Requiem Mass was celebrated Wednesday morning at Saint John of the Cross Church.

Mrs. Griggs, a native and lifetime resident of this area, was the widow of Charles B. Griggs. She was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George W. Rhoads, who settled in San Diego County in the 1800's.

She is survived by five sons, including Stephen, of Lemon Grove, and Charles and Berbard, of El Cajon. Also surviving are three daughters, including Mrs. Patricia Graham, and Mrs. Mary Rickel, both of Lemon Grove.

Interment was in Holy Cross Cemetery.

A. R. Guarino

Rosary was recited for Angelino Rose Guarino, 44, of 246 Lakeview dr., Spring Valley, December 20, with Requiem Mass held December 21 at Santa Sophia Catholic Church, in Casa de Oro.

She died December 16, at Sharp Hospital.

A native of Connecticutt, she had lived in this area for eight years. She is survived by her husband, Robert, and four sons. Her sons, John, Anthony, Michael and Robert, are of the same address.

Interment was in Holy Cross Cemetery, with Conrad Lemon Grove Mortuary in charge of arrangements.

E. C. Holmes

Graveside services for Elmer Carl Holmes, 76, of Spring Valley, were held December 21 at Golden Gate National Cemetery.

Holmes, a retired Master Sargeant with the United States Army, died December 14. He was a native of Washington, but had lived in California for 40 years. He lived in Spring Valley for two months.

He is survived by his son, Donald, who presently resides in England. Conrad Lemon Grove Mortuary was in charge of arrangements.

G. H. Gilroy

Services were held at Conrad Lemon Grove Mortuary Saturday morning for Gordon H. Gilroy, 46, of 9101 Lamar st., Spring Valley, a retired Navy Chief who died December 16 at Grossmont Hospital.

A native of Michigan, Gilroy was a member of El Cajon Black Mountain Post of the VFW, and had lived in this area for 12 years.

He is survived by his widow, Frances, and sons John and Calvin, all of the same address.

J. A. Scott

Graveside memorial services were held Friday morning for James A. Scott, who died shortly after his birth at Grossmont Hospital December 14.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Scott, of 7645 Pacific ave., Lemon Grove,

New Veep For BoA

Gilbert R. Fox has been named regional vice president and chief executive officer for Bank of America's 48 branches in San Diego County, chairman of the Board Louis B. Lundborg announced this week.

G. R. Fox

Fox, who has been with the bank 34 years and had been vice president and manager of the bank's San Diego Main Office since 1961, succeeds C. O. Phillips who retires Feb. 1 after a 45-year career. Phillips has been in charge of the bank's San Diego County region since 1963.

In his new high-level position, Fox will be in charge of all branch activities in San Diego County and will carry the equivalent rank and authority of a senior vice president at the corporation level.

Over the years, Fox also has held board of directors or officer positions with the San Diego Better Business Bureau, Community Welfare Council, Kiwanis Club, Mayor's Committee on Municipal Finance, Merchants Credit Assn., San Diego Chamber of Commerce, San Diego County Council on Economic Education, United Community Services and San Diego Downtown Assn.

He resides in El Cajon.

Craven Named Sup Chairman

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — William A. Craven, fifth district supervisors from North County, was elected chairman of the County Board of Supervisors on Tuesday in a three-man vote.

Both supervisors Harry Scheidle and Jack Walsh refused to take part in the balloting. This did not change the result, but it did indicate again a deep split on the board.

Scheidle and Walsh are both under indictment by the County Grand Jury in connection with the Yellow Cab case which made the selection of a chairman of more than normal interest.

Under usual circumstances, Scheidle would have been made chairman since he was vice chairman this year. Walsh would normally have been selected as vice chairman.

Scheidle said he did not want the post to avoid any embarrassment to the county Walsh took the position that the selection of the chairman should wait until F. James Bear replaces De Graff Austin on the board on the first Monday in January.

Bear was selected vice chairman.

Sweetwater Ranch To Be Part Of Rancho San Diego Operation

sing, golf courses, both neighborhood and major commercial areas and landscaped technical-industrial parks.

Recreation and open space will be prime elements of the RSD development, Kirkendall said. Included in the 6000-acre planned community is the well-known Cottonwood country club.

A full range of houses, apartments, stores, offices, businesses and industry are being planned along with recreational, social, cultural and educational institutions.

Grossmont Community College has chosen a site in RSD for its second campus.

Subcommunities or villages will be elements to the overall area, allowing residents to identify with their neighbors, with the immediate neighborhood and with major residential areas.

Each neighborhood will have its own recreation park facility, which, according to Kirkendall, will be completed and ready for operation on the day the first resident moves in.

The first construction activity is located adjacent to Monte Vista High School and will include two neighborhoods of the first village.

Hearing In Jan.

Meanwhile, according to the County News Service, action on the first development of Rancho San Diego has been set over to Jan. 29 by the County Board of Supervisors.

The Associated Land Company-Delaware, according to engineer Mike Leach, plans 1450 dwelling units on both sides of Austin dr. and west of Sweetwater Springs blvd. The application was for rezones and a special use permit for a planned residential development (PRD).

The board previously approved formation of a county service area to serve as a public agency for planning the total project. The service area could also supply practically every municipal service.

There were two persons who spoke in opposition, Maria Hughes and Jack Skeels, president of the La Mesa Country Club Civic Assn.

Mrs. Hughes said the county was acting too hastily.

Skeels said the project would cause overloaded access roads, and overcrowded schools.

He also said that his group objects violently to any R-3 zoning in the project. R-3 allows a unit density of one per each 1,000 square feet.

Nothing was before the board with a density of more than R-2)3,000 square feet). Thre are two areas, however, reserved for future consideration to R-3.

The county counsel and planning department were asked to make a presentation on Feb. 17 in relationship to such things as school sites and how the county can make sure that land said to be reserved is actually reserved.

Jack Walsh said that while developers pay for many of the improvements other costs are forced upon the local taxpayers, especially in the school situation. That is, all of a district is liable for a bond issue to build a school, Walsh said.

Leach said he has been in constant touch with the La Mesa-Spring Valley School District. He said the building firm is willing to build temporary school facilities for lease to the district.

Petitions Nearly Ready Here, Russell Says

striping of the parking lots — are what the petitions asks for. These improvements will cost the property owners $35,000.

The improvements are expected to help the litter problem in the area, as the private parking areas will then come under the jurisdiction of the County Sheriff, since the maintenance of the areas will be a county operation.

Currently, the Sheriff's Office can do nothing about loitering and littering of the areas.

Also at the meeting, the Chamber of Commerce heard a report from Leonard Maxwell, who represents a group of residents on Main st., across from the Women's Clubhouse.

Maxwell said in his report that he was addressing the board to clarify reasons why the group wants to have the license renewal of the Women's Club stopped.

Maxwell told the chamber that there is a problem with square dance groups that use the building, making noise late at night.

He said that none of the residents were opposed to the Women's Club's use of the building, but the action was taken so that the square dance groups would not be able to use it.

He said that the problem was when the square dances were over car horns and voices were heard. He also noted that some of the square dancers have been using his driveway to park.

Rabies Shots Clinics Set In This Area

The annual public rabies vaccination clinics for dogs, sponsored by the San Diego County Veterinary Medical Association, will be held the week of January 11, at three locations in this area.

Locations in this area include the Jamul-Las Flores School, in Jamul, January 13, from 7 to 9 p.m., and the La Mesa Pool in La Mesa, January 12, from 7 to 9 p.m.

In Spring Valley, the clinic will be held at the Casa de Oro Fire Station, January 11, from 7 to 9 p.m., and Lemon Grove dog owners can take their pets to San Altos School, January 13, frm 7 to 9 p.m.

Dogs will be vaccinated with a 2 year vaccine at a fee of $2 per dog, and with no cost to the tax payer.

The veterinarians vaccinating at these clinics are members of the San Diego County Veterinary Medical Association and all donate their time as a public service to their community.

All dog owners, whose dog has not been vaccinated for 2 years or are at least 4 months of age, are required by law to have an up-to-date rabies vaccination.

Dog owners planning to attend these clinics are reminded:

Have your dog on a leash and be able to control him, withhold food 4 hours prior to the clinic, no checks will be accepted— and correct change will be appreciated.

The National Safety Council estimates that from 2,700 to 3,000 lives were saved during 1969 because motorists involved in accidents were wearing seat belts.

Oliver Named Undersheriff

Donald R. Oliver, 35, a former sheriff's lieutenant, has been named undersheriff by Sheriff-elect John Duffy.

Oliver, an attorney, resigned from the sheriff's department in 1969 to practice law.

He will return on January 4th when Duffy takes office. He lives in La Mesa.

Service, Rate Cut Set By Trash Firm Here

Thomas and Son Disposal, the firm that collects trash and garbage in Lemon Grove and Spring Valley, has announced a reduction to one-day a week collection service with a drop in rate of about 10 per cent. The new schedule starts Jan. 1.

The firm has been collecting on a two-day week schedule for $2.75 a month. Beginning in January, the collection service will be cut 50 per cent. The rate will be cut to $2.50, to Mrs. Frank Thomas, spokesman for the firm.

She said that the change was made to avert having to raise the collection charge.

Each subscriber is being notified as to the day his trash is being collected. In the event of a holiday, pickup will be one day later.

Generally, rules are the same as before. No concrete, sod, earth or manure will be collected.

Tree trimmings and shrubs must be no longer than four feet in length, securely tied and weigh no more than 50 pounds. Garbage mingled with trash must be well drained and wrapped. Trash should weigh no more than 65 pounds and containers should not exceed 45 gallons capacity, she said.

Containers should be in an easily accessible place not later than 6 a.m. the day of collection, she said.

Subscribers will not only be required to plan on once-a-week service, but they must also learn to compact their trash, she added.

The firm is at 3343 Olive st. in Lemon Grove. The phone number is 461-2261.

Christmas Seals are a favorite holiday custom. They're useful, too. They fight emphysema, tuberculsis, and air pollution.
